

Coastal Resources blog: Our Top Stories of the Past Decade, Part 2

Read this blog post: Our Top Stories of the Past Decade, Part 2

<http://sccoastalresources.com/home/2020/1/8/our-top-stories-of-the-decade-part-ii>

Think

Answer the multiple-choice questions below.

Where do most cobia spawn in South Carolina? *

- Cooper River
- Edisto River
- Harbor River
- Broad River

Why didn't any birds nest on Crab Bank in 2018? *

- High predation from other animals
- Heavy wave action from boat traffic eroded the island
- Houses were built on the island
- Other animals began to nest there

Which of the follow is true about the record year of Loggerhead sea turtle nests? *

- It happened in 2017.
- It reached the goal of the Federal Loggerhead Recovery plan.
- The total number of nests doubled the 5-year average.
- It yielded 34,000 hatchlings into the ocean.

Dig Deeper: Choose a year from the article. Use the links in the article to learn more about the topic from that year. What is something new that you learned? *

Discuss: Do you remember hearing about the topic in the year that you choose?

What was a highlight in your life that year? *